

Melbourne Anime Festival's Amaranth Anime Masquerade Ball 2008 Registration Form

Attendees Code of Conduct

We ask you to observe the following rules during the event (Amaranth 2008), for everyone's safety and enjoyment:

- Attendees are reminded that not all people wish for their photos to be taken. Should you wish to take a photo of someone, please ask for permission first.
- Please be kind and courteous to your fellow attendees, guests, and staff at all times. Disruptive behavior that disturbs others is not allowed. This includes running, screaming, yelling, horseplay, unsolicited physical contact, or any other such behavior as deemed disruptive by Amaranth staff.
- No sexual, racial, political harassment or harassment of any other kind is permitted. Manifest encourages its members to have fun, but not at the expense of other members.
- Heckling during the event is NOT acceptable. Those found heckling will be dealt with as deemed appropriate. Offensive and/or revealing attire is prohibited.
- Please treat the venue with respect. Do not damage or deface the property in any way.
- No smoking inside any buildings or within 10 metres of an open doorway or air intake.
- Each attendee must retain possession of his or her own invitation for the duration of the event and may not loan or give their invitation to anyone else except as directed by Amaranth staff.
- Rollerblades, skates, skateboards, scooters, and bicycles are prohibited in the venue.
- Due to concerns regarding space and safety, large props will not be permitted within the venue. This includes (but is not restricted to): large wings, swords, staffs etc. For further information please refer to the Dress Code.
- Do not leave your bags unattended! Any bag left unattended will be turned over to the appropriate authorities. This may include the members of the Manifest or Amaranth staff, security staff of BlueFire Churrascaria Grill & Bar, or the Melbourne Police Department.
- All large bags or backpacks must be placed in the cloakroom. In the interest of safety, any book bags, briefcases, suitcases, cosplay accessories, or other items deemed unwieldy by the security staff may be temporary confiscated by security.
- Due to the identification processes required prior to entering the venue, it may be necessary to wait in line prior to gaining entry. Please be patient and understanding with us. We will do our best to accommodate everyone as quickly as possible.
- Disabled persons, staff, on-duty volunteers, and guests of honor are not required to stand in line for entry. If you have any questions, please contact security.
- Please follow the directions of the venue staff and security. They are there to make your experience more enjoyable, not to hinder or hurt you. Anyone who refuses to obey either venue staff or security will be subject to removal from the venue.
- If you have any problems, questions, or concerns, please contact an Amaranth or Manifest staff member. They will be happy to assist you.

Terms and Conditions

- Attendees are reminded that participation of the event constitutes as compliance with the Attendees Code of Conduct, and the Dress Code set for this event. Inappropriate behavior or breaches to these rules may result in immediate ejection from the venue without refund.
- All attendees must be aged 16 or above at the time of the event.
- Attendees under age 18 at time of the event must be approved by a valid parent/caretaker in their registration.
- Attendees 18 and over must present government-issued photo ID; school IDs are acceptable for attendees under 18. All identifications presented must clearly display a date of birth.
- Any person found attempting to forge an invitation or presenting forged ID, will be removed from the event and may be banned from future Manifest events.
- Invitations are non-refundable and non-transferable. Invitations may not be resold. Staff reserve the right to check ID for anyone they suspect is carrying an invitation that is not their own or if they breach the age restrictions of the event.
- No replacement will be provided for lost invites. If you happen to lose your invitation then bring along a photo ID and your receipt to the venue staff so that you may be checked against our guest list.
- Attendees agree to provide complete and accurate registration information.
- By attending a Manifest event, you agree to possibly being filmed and that resulting footage may be used in future promotional activities related to Manifest.
- Manifest claims all rights pertaining to commercial use of all audio recordings, video recordings, and photography of Manifest events. Manifest also reserves the right to use any such media published in the public domain for publicity purposes. We will contact you when this occurs.
- Amaranth is a strictly alcohol, smoke and drug free event. All persons found in the possession of either alcohol or drugs (or under its influence) will be immediately expelled from the premises and relevant authorities may be notified.
- Attendees carrying and requiring the use of medication on the night must report to the venue manager or Amaranth staff at the beginning of the event.
- NO WEAPONS are to be brought to, worn or carried at any time during the event (including water pistols, real or replica guns, swords and knives), unless officially approved as part of a Manifest event.
- No flash powder, lasers, explosions, pyrotechnics or open flames of any kind will be permitted.
- Manifest and BlueFire Churrascaria Grill & Bar are not liable for any missing or damaged belongings. Please keep a close eye on your items. If you lose something please contact venue security.
- Manifest holds no responsibility in regards to attendees arriving and leaving the venue. Attendees are expected to make their own arrangements to and from the venue, and arrange for their own accommodations if required.
- Manifest and Amaranth organizers reserve the right to EJECT individuals from the event itself (either temporarily or permanently) should they feel any of the above rules have been violated. In extreme cases, the Manifest committee reserves the right to BAN an individual from future Manifest events.
- These policies may be modified at any time, as determined necessary by Manifest 2008.

Declaration: I have read and understood the Attendees Code of Conduct and the Terms and Conditions of Amaranth 2008 and agree to abide by it. I also declare that the information presented on this form is correct to the best of my knowledge.
